This is too hard

Don't Say	Do Say
"You never going to get this."	"What about I try instead?"
"You sometimes do this."	"I want to be on the right track."
"I just can't do that."	"You going to have to practice this."
"You're just too hard."	"How is going to take some time."
"It's worse for her - she's just slower."	"I'm going to work and have when it's meaningful to do this."
"My answer is the first way it is."	"What can I do to make this answer more better?"

I CAN'T DO THIS ANY BETTER...YET!
