

IT'S CHEAP IN INDIA

India is the cheapest major economy in the world, reveals 'Mapping the World's Prices 2013', a survey conducted by Deutsche Bank across 57 countries.

Movie tickets
 ₹212 | ₹218 | ₹3,159
 INDIA | MALAYSIA | MEXICO

A litre of petrol
 ₹46 | ₹75 | ₹123
 MALAYSIA | INDIA | HONG KONG

Burger at McDonald's
 ₹90 | ₹110 | ₹490
 INDIA | SOUTH AFRICA | VENEZUELA

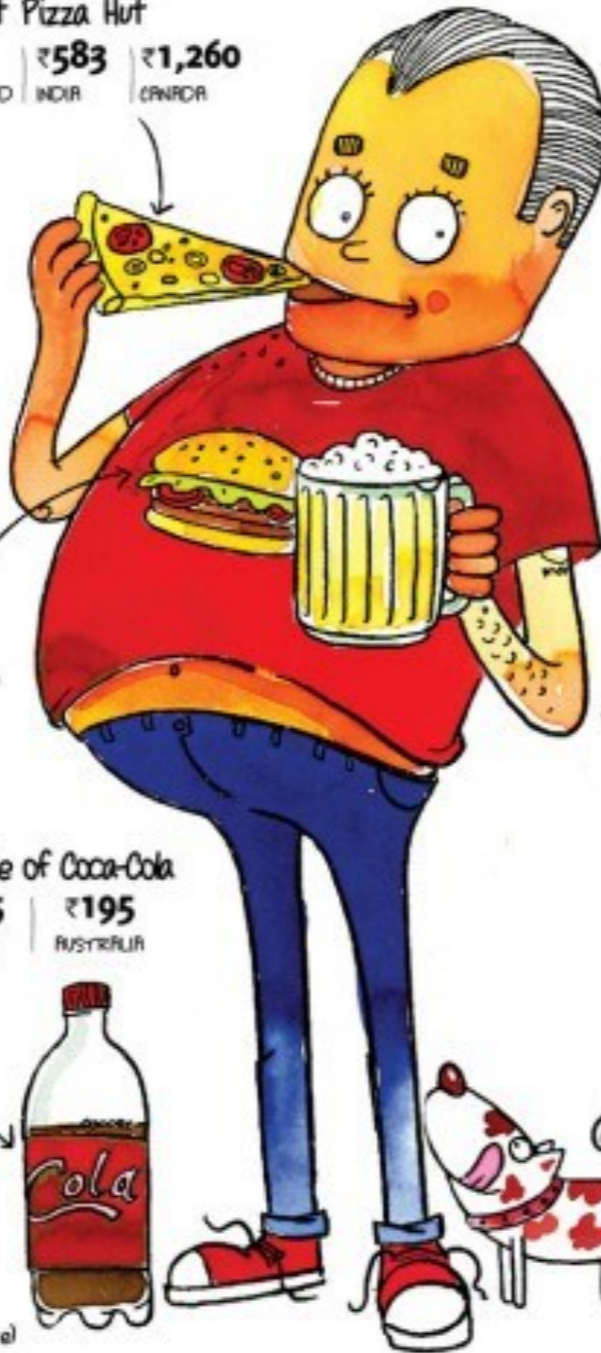

2-litre bottle of Coca-Cola
 ₹58 | ₹65 | ₹195
 INDIA | CHINA | AUSTRALIA

Public transport (minimum fare)
 ₹10 | ₹12 | ₹196
 INDIA | MALAYSIA | AUSTRALIA

Pizza at Pizza Hut
 ₹444 | ₹583 | ₹1,260
 NEW ZEALAND | INDIA | CANADA

₹3,438

is the cost of a pair of sports shoes in India. Only China is cheaper, with shoes costing ₹2,700. The US is more expensive at ₹3,780, but the most expensive is Russia, where you will have to shell out ₹8,802.

51%

has been the rise in the price of 1 kg loaf of bread over the past 10 years in Mumbai to ₹46, the cheapest city to buy it currently. In Tokyo and Paris, you'll have to pay ₹480-490.

A pair of Levi's 501
 ₹2,010 | ₹2,538 | ₹7,292
 INDIA | USA | RUSSIA

₹113

is the price you pay for a pack of Marlboro cigarettes in Delhi. This is cheaper than in most cities. Be prepared to fork out ₹930 in Melbourne and ₹665 in New York.

Buying an iPhone
 ₹35,046 | ₹45,356 | ₹47,919
 USA | INDIA | FRANCE

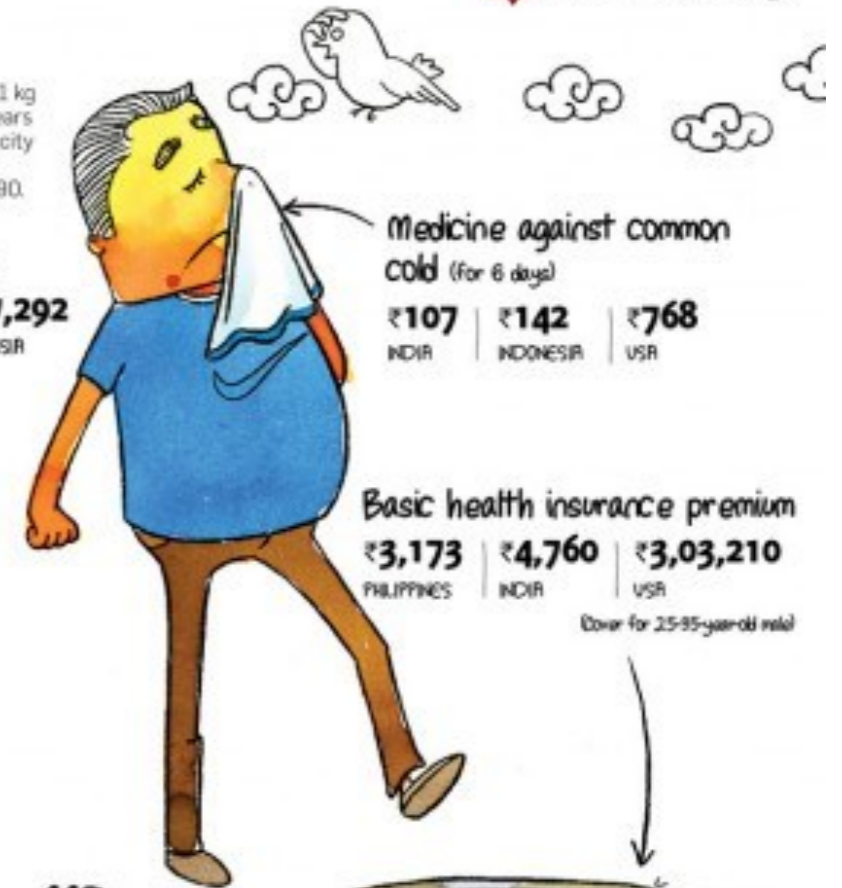

Coffee at Starbucks
 ₹135 | ₹174 | ₹531
 NEW DELHI | MEXICO CITY | OSLO

Countries are listed from cheapest to most expensive. Prices are rounded off. The survey is in dollars but has been converted to rupees (₹1=₹54). Data is taken from prices posted on the Net or from sources that have collated it. Products that are standard across countries or have close substitutes have been taken.

GRAPHICS RAJ

The Economic Times wealth

Medicine against common cold (for 6 days)
 ₹107 | ₹142 | ₹768
 INDIA | INDONESIA | USA

Basic health insurance premium
 ₹3,173 | ₹4,760 | ₹3,03,210
 PHILIPPINES | INDIA | USA

Cover for 25-35-year-old male

