

I get to make a real impact, carrying out work of national significance

Helen
Defence analyst

In teaching you can be creative. It's never boring and you can change peoples' lives

Paul
Maths teacher

With a maths degree, you can be pretty much anything — you're always in demand

Emily
Maths student

A massively important factor is that it's a fun industry

Nick
Computer games developer

I love travelling and collaborating with other people, and it was exciting to be involved in a space mission

Helen
Physicist

With a maths qualification, you get a better job and more money

John
Maths publisher

I love the sheer variety of my work

Jodie
Statistical consultant

Maths can be applied in so many different places

Jim
Avalanche researcher

Maths trains you to work in the abstract, to think creatively and come up with concrete solutions

Wen
Architect

Maths gave me the opportunity to turn a passion for music into a successful career

Skot
Music software engineer

Maths MAKES A difference

to your future career

Find out more in the 'Careers with maths' Library, from Plus, the free online maths magazine <http://plus.maths.org/careerslibrary/>

