

Running from Saturday July 4th to Sunday July 26th 2015, the 102th Tour de France will be made up of 21 stages and will cover a total distance of 3,360 kilometres.

The Tour de France attracts 12 million spectators along the route in a typical year's race. 30% are woman.

Approximately how many spectators are women?

How many miles is the course?
1 km = 0.62 miles

The average Tour de France rider burns a whopping 123,900 calories over the course of the 21 day race !

How many crispy crème doughnuts would that be?
1 glazed doughnut = 200 calories

In 1903, 60 riders took part in the first race. Only 21 riders completed the course. What percentage completed the course?

Le Tour de France

The prize for winning the yellow jersey in 2014 was €450,000. This was split equally between all 9 team members. How much would each rider receive in £s.
€1 = £0.71

